Upcoming Events

Easter Egg Hunt

This is a wonderful opportunity to invite your neighbors to our church. It is this Saturday at 10am. You can also invite people through the Facebook event! See Children headlines for more details.

Body 4 Believers

First Baptist Church will be hosting a health & diet seminar "Learn to Lose" by a ministry team called 'Body for Believers' on Saturday, April 11 from 9am to 2pm.

Dual County Defenders Presents "Side Effects"

FBCFO is partnering with Catoosa Prevention Initiative to host "Side Effects". This is a three act drama concerning the pitfalls of prescription abuse/misuse presented by the Dual County Defenders. (Act 1) Drama (Act 2) Q & A with the characters. (Act 3) Q & A with someone in recovery. This will be greatly beneficial for youth as well as senior adults. Join us for this event on Wednesday, April 29, 2015 at 6pm in the worship center.

New Playground is Coming Soon!

We are very excited about our new playground and we need your help on these key Saturdays: 4/11 Demolition; 4/25 Landscape preparation; and 5/9 Fence Work & Mulching. Please call the church office to sign up as a helper.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

Please pray for our missionaries and give to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Every dollar you give will go towards church planting and missions in the United States.

Word From Our Pastor

Jason Thomas

Jesus knew this week was coming. Three times he told his disciples exactly how it would happen... “We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified” (Matt. 20:18–19a). Yet, as the Passover was approaching, Jesus took each step that would position himself to be the ultimate Passover sacrifice. He went to Jerusalem, he shared the Last Supper, he prayed in the garden, he yielded to the betrayers, he remained silent amidst the accusations, he endured the shame, the mockery, and the flogging, and finally, he surrendered to the condemnation and physical death of Roman crucifixion. What was it that motivated Jesus to yield himself and walk through the events of Passion week in obedience to the Father’s plan? Amazingly, the answer is you and I. Jesus did all of this with us in mind! “Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners – of whom I am the worst (1 Tim. 1:15). Did you get that? Jesus came into the world, with all of its darkness, difficulty, and death, to save sinners like you and I. Even the worst of us can be saved. You can never be too guilty or too far gone for this Passion week to save your life. If you are not yet saved, I hope you will experience it. If you are, I hope you will join me in cherishing it. We have a wonderful week and weekend to celebrate in Christ! See you soon!

Yours in Christ, Jason

Congratulations
Congratulations to Amanda & Bryan Alexander. Lucy Isabella Alexander was born 3-27-15 and weighed 7 lbs, 5.7 oz. 20-1/4 in long. Please be in prayer for this wonderful family. We celebrate this new life in the heartbeat of our church!

SS Teachers
Mark your calendars now for our Quarterly Sunday School leaders and teachers meeting, Sunday, April 19 after the service. We will have a meal and discuss this year’s Sunday School campaign. Any SS leader is invited to come.

Discipleship

Over history, death has been man’s relentless and unyielding enemy. No one, regardless of worldly position, strength, or wealth has been able to escape death. As soon as we are born, death becomes our destiny. Many have tried, but no one has developed an antidote for death. The reality of the resurrection is that death has been defeated! It is no longer the impenetrable enemy, for Christ marched through the gates of sin and claimed decisive victory over death. He conquered death completely; now He promises His followers that we, too, will share in His victory. As a disciple of Christ, we need not fear death. Christ has gone before us and will lead us to join Him in heaven. Death actually frees us to experience the glorious, heavenly presence of our mysterious God. No illness can

Children's Headlines

Happy Spring Break Week to most of you! I hope that during this week of rest and relaxation for your children that you will make it a point to be at church for the special Holy Week activities that are planned. I think that children can learn many things from the experiences the church is providing.

The Easter Egg Hunt is this weekend, April 4th from 10:00 am- 12:00 pm. All children, ages birth - 5th grade are invited to attend. We will hunt in two groups, birth - age 4 (not yet started school) and 5 (PreK) - 5th grade. The first group will begin their hunt at 10:15 and the second group will begin when they are finished. We will all gather back in the fellowship circle for a light lunch around 11:30. We will serve hotdogs, chips, Little Debbies, and drinks. Make sure to bring your own Easter basket!

Pinewood Derby: April 18th - Weigh in will begin at 1:30 and the race will start at 2:00. Be sure to see Miss Sarah this weekend or next to purchase a car kit ($5.00) or pay your registration ($2.00) to use a car from a previous year.

I am praying for you and your children daily. Have a blessed Holy Week experience!
Sarah

Just a Note

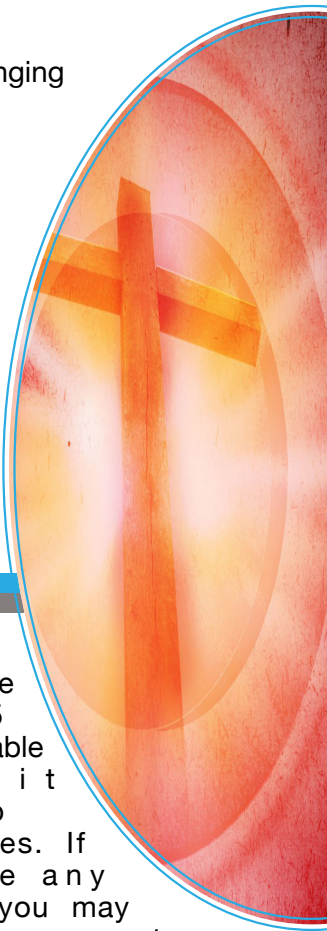

Easter is a blessed time of rejoicing in the Church. We celebrate the fulfillment of God’s promise to send a savior and we celebrate His victory over the grave that we too, may have eternal life in Him. We also anticipate His victorious return. Sunday will bring some happy reunions with family and friends that we may not have seen for some time. May it be a sweet time for all. A special reminder to the choir; we have several members who will not be able to be here Sunday. So, we need every available voice. The service will begin a little earlier this week. We are looking at 10:45. So please be in the choir room by 10:30. As I said last week; the Worship Choir has room for new members. If you have been thinking of joining or rejoining the choir, now is a great time. After Easter, we will begin to look at 10 brand new songs

Women's Retreat

After the wonderful response we had to our first Women’s retreat to the Pinnacle, we will be planning another retreat on Oct. 2-4. (Note date change) The cost is $127 per person which includes your room, 5 meals, and gas for the bus. A $15 deposit is required in order to hold our spot. This is for any woman age 18 and over. If you are interested in going, please get your $15 non refundable deposit submitted to Laura Jones. If you have any questions you may call her at 423-605-1816.

CERT Mission Trip

We will be going on a CERT Mission trip to Easter Retreat Center in Curry County, VA. The Buses will leave at 6am Sunday Aug 30 and return on Friday Sept

4. All expense will be paid by Eastover and CERT. If interested contact Marlin at 423.290.4093 to make reservations.

Ministry Opportunities
