Word From Our Pastor

Jason Thomas

This week in Life Group, I came across this word from the Lord in James 5:16... “The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much” (NKJV). The New Living Translation puts it this way, “The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.” Like me, you have probably read these words from James 5:16 before. Yet, I am excited and challenged to read them again with this opportunity in mind... What if everyone of us prayed that way with deep-rooted faith and expectation? Imagine the difference in your personal life, in your family and church family, in your community, and across the world!

God has given us this exciting word and opportunity because He wants us to pray that way. This is prayer that is sincere, committed, focused, specific, from a confessed and forgiven heart, and with faith that God wants to listen and respond.

I fully believe that many of us, hopefully all of us, are able and willing to pray this way. Would you join with me and with each other to begin a prayer life that will bring us closer to God and help us rediscover the power of prayer? We'll talk more about prayer this weekend and next Wednesday night. Have a refreshing start to your summer and see you this weekend!

Praying fervently for you!

Jason

Discipleship

What does it mean to always set the Lord before you? Two words: Here and now. It means that you choose to relate everything you encounter to your trust in God. What you choose to focus on becomes the dominant influence in your life. You may be a believer, but if your focus is always on your problems, your problems will determine the direction of your life. If your focus is on man, then people will determine what you think and do. In Scripture, the right hand was the most distinguished position, reserved for one's chief adviser and supporter. When you choose to focus on Christ, you invite Him to take the most important position in your life as Counselor and Defender, tuning out the rest and hearing directly from him.

we should turn to Christ for His interpretation and strength. When people mistreat us, we should seek direction from our Counselor regarding our response. When we face a crisis, we should receive strength from the One at our right hand. When we experience need, we should consult our Counselor before we react. When we face a fearful situation, we should take courage from the Advocate at our right hand. Everything you do is in the context of your relationship to Christ. Here and now.

What an incredible act of God's grace that the Creator would stand beside us to guide us, counsel us and defend us. How do we ever become dismayed over our situation with Christ at our right hand? Trust Him to hear from Him here and now.

Music & Worship

Dear Brothers and Sisters

What a great day of worship Sunday! The Mass choir singing “Victory in Jesus” just blew me away. And to finish off the day with the Acapella sounds from the “Emmanuel Quartet” was a special blessing. Thank you for your support. We had a good crowd and a wonderfully presented worship experience.

The coming weeks will be a time of transition as we welcome Brad and Elaine Lewis into our family. Some of you may not know that Brad lost his mother last Friday, so please be holding him and his family in a special way in your prayers this week.

Thank you for your gracious support during this interim time. It has been a real blessing to serve our church family.

We still have some special events coming up on Sunday evenings so be watching for details and announcements. Many who were in attendance Sunday night expressed
